Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in serving as a helps minister at World Harvest Church. It is our desire that you become a part of our family as you are connected.

As a part of our reference checking process we may ask you to authorize a criminal records check if you are at least 18 years of age. As we minister to a large number of children and youth, we must be very thorough in our screening process of applicants and to comply with government agency regulation regarding minors.

Please complete all parts of this application fully and accurately:
